SET NO.: ONE (1)

Defendant BrianDunning.com ("Defendant" and/or "Responding Party") hereby responds to the First Set of Interrogatories (Nos. 1-2) propounded by Plaintiff eBay Inc.
("Plaintiff" and/or "Propounding Party") as follows:

GENERAL STATEMENT

Defendant's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint was granted by Order entered February 24, 2009. As such, Plaintiff's Complaint has been dismissed with leave to amend. No amended complaint has been filed and/or served in this action. As such, there is no pending claim against Defendant and Defendant is not required to respond to Plaintiff's discovery request. In this regard, Defendant requested that Plaintiff acknowledge that no response is required or, in the alternative, grant Defendant an extension of time to respond to the discovery requests until some time after Plaintiff files an amended complaint against Defendant, if at all. Plaintiff refused Defendant's request without explanation. Defendant serves these responses out of an abundance of caution in the event it is determined that such responses are required despite the dismissal of Plaintiff's Complaint against Defendant. Otherwise, Defendant reserves the right to withdraw these responses in total and otherwise object to the use, reference to, or disclosure of these responses in any manner for any purpose.

Brian Dunning ("Mr. Dunning") has invoked his privilege against self-incrimination pursuant to the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, Lefkowitz v. Turley, 414 U.S. 70, 77 (1973), Federal Rules of Evidence Rule 501, Article 1, Section 15 of the California Constitution, and California Evidence Code section 940. Since Mr. Dunning is the sole authorized representative of Responding Party, and the only person who can verify discovery responses on behalf of Responding Party, Responding Party cannot provide any verified responses without compromising Mr. Dunning's right against self-incrimination.

Should Mr. Dunning determine that there is no longer the threat of potential criminal prosecution and elect to withdraw his privilege against self-incrimination in the future, Responding Party expressly reserves the right to supplement its responses.

Furthermore, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has seized all documents and computers, disk drives, hard drives, cell phones and servers containing information potentially related to this matter. Assistant United States Attorney Kyle F. Waldinger in charge of this investigation has refused all requests to provide Defendants with a copy of the material seized

1 by the FBI. Those items and records may contain information responsive to the requests
2 below, but those items and records are not in the possession, custody or control of Defendants.

3 Without waiving any of the foregoing, Responding Party responds to the 4 interrogatories below:

9 Affiliate Marketing Programs including, but not limited to, all methods, techniques and 10 technologies, software, source code, Javascript and HTML code, used by BrianDunning.com
11 to obtain revenue from, or otherwise interact with, participate in or manipulate any Affiliate

13 RESPONSE TO SPECIAL INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

17 Rule 501, Article 1, Section 15 of the California Constitution, and California Evidence Code
18 section 940. Responding Party further objects on the ground that this interrogatory is vague
19 and ambiguous, overbroad, unduly burdensome and oppressive. Responding Party further
20 objects on the grounds that the term "manipulation" and "manipulate" are vague, argumentative
21 and conclusory. Responding Party further objects that to the extent this interrogatory seeks 22 information related to programs other than eBay's Affiliate Marketing Program, the 23 interrogatory is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action, nor reasonably calculated
24 to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Responding Party further objects to this 25 interrogatory on the ground that it seeks production of trade secrets or other confidential
26 information.
